

i am concerned that your consideration of low power fm stations will eliminmate national translator stations such as KLOVE fm. stations like this are very important to much of the local population and cannot be duplicated locally because of cost considerations-christian stations are very important to my family and to many others locally andregionally, and should be encouraged, not eliminated. thank you